FIJI GOVERNMENT REQUIREMENTS

1) Conditions of temporary entry under Code 228 (a), (b), and (c) of the Customs Tariff Act 1986:

Visiting yachts enter and remain temporarily in Fiji without payment of Customs charges provided:

- a. The yacht is on bona fide cruise or participating in a yacht race.
- b. The yacht is solely for personal use of the owner or master.
- c. The yacht shall remain in Fiji for a period not exceeding 24 months from its arrival provided the owner or master is still cruising.
- d. The owner shall retain his/her immigration status as a bona fide tourist whilst in Fiji; and
- e. The owner is permitted to travel in and out of Fiji to attend to essential services such as buying spares for the yacht, family commitments etc. whilst the yacht remains in Fiji for a maximum period not exceeding 24 months.

2) Designated Ports:

You must report your yacht inwards at a Customs Port upon arrival in Fiji and must clear outwards at a Customs Port before leaving Fiji. The Customs Ports are SUVA, LAUTOKA [Vuda Marina], SAVUSAVU, DENARAU, ROTUMA AND LEVUKA.

3) Liability to duty and/or forfeiture:

Your yacht will be liable to duty at full Tariff Rate and/or forfeiture if:

- a) It is in any way disposed of in Fiji (i.e. sold, abandoned¹ or given as gift);
- b) It is put to commercial use or for other consideration whilst in Fiji waters (i.e. taken for commercial charters, hired or leased cruises);
- c) The owner is associated with any entity in Fiji as an employee or employer either upon arrival or subsequently.
- d) You/The Owner enter(s) and reside(s) in Fiji either upon arrival or subsequently.
- e) The yacht is not exported permanently within 24 months of the date of the yacht's arrival in Fiji;
- f) Special approval will be given to owners who need medical attention or who need to purchase spare parts personally, from overseas. For these reasons yacht owners will need to make a request in writing to Customs at their port of location; (in such situations the yacht will not be subjected to duty).
- g) The owner of the yacht is a holder of a Fiji Immigration permit to enter and reside in Fiji either before arrival or subsequently.

4) Arms and ammunition to be surrendered:

On arrival all arms and ammunition must be declared and surrendered to the Customs Officer for safe keeping by Fiji Police. Arrangements to uplift any such arms or ammunition for departure may be arranged directly with the Police and collected before leaving Fiji. Please allow sufficient time for this process.

5) Live animals, reptiles and birds, fresh meat, fruits and vegetables:

- a) No live animals, reptiles or birds of any kind; or
- b) Fresh meat, fruits and vegetables on board the yacht may be landed or taken ashore.
- c) Some restrictions on whether such goods will be permitted to remain on board at a Customs Port may be enforced by Biosecurity Officers.

¹ Abandoned does not mean vacating the yacht for short intervals if the owner or master has to fly overseas.

6) Currency:

The owner/master shall declare upon arrival any currency or negotiable bearer instruments with a combined value of FJD$10,000 or more or its equivalent in foreign currency, in his or her possession or carried on board the yacht.

7) No Duty-Free stores for yachts:

- a) No high dutiable goods such as liquor, beer, tobacco and cigarettes or any other bonded or drawback goods may be shipped duty free as stores for yachts.
- b) All adult crew members and adult passengers will be allowed the normal duty-free passenger landing allowances upon arrival under Code 218 but any excess stores shall be subject to normal import duty or detention by Customs.

8) All crew members and passengers require entry permits from an Immigration officer before they disembark in Fiji, and this duty is also done by a Customs Officer on behalf of Immigration Dept. For all your Immigration requirements, a Customs Officer will facilitate you.

9) The owner/master of the yacht shall provide the Customs Officer with a manifest list of all persons on board who will also need to see every person on board, sight their passports and correctly completed passenger arrival cards.

10) In addition, the Customs Officer may require the production of onward tickets or security bonds from any person aboard.

11) No less than 48hrs prior to this vessel departing from an authorized point in Fiji, advice of this fact via email must be made to yachtsreport@frcs.org.fj outlining planned departure point and requesting Customs departure clearance.

Note that prior to clearance being given, checks will be made with other Border Agencies to confirm departure clearance can be given. If the 48-hour notice isn't met, or if outstanding charges or fees are owing, this will affect the ability to give clearance at the requested time.

12) Please ask the attending Government Officer[s] if you do not understand the ANA, as failure to comply with any of the conditions may render you liable to penalties under the respective government laws.

This advance notice of arrival report must be completed in its entirety no less than 48 hours prior to ETA into Fiji.

Non-compliance with this may see clearances delayed, withheld or refused.

23. THIS SECTION IS TO BE COMPLETED AND WITNESSED BY A FIJI GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE AT TIME OF BOARDING.

This advance notice of arrival contains information that is legislatively required by the Border Agencies of Fiji.

The master of the vessel that this document relates to is responsible for ensuring all required information is supplied and is correct.

Insufficient or inaccurate information being provided by the Master may result in this vessel, crew and/or passengers not being cleared for entry into the Islands of Fiji.

The requirement to complete this document correctly is legislated for under the following enactments, many of which contain instant fine or penalty provisions for non-compliance.

- Biosecurity Act 2014
- Customs Act & Regulations of 1986
- Financial Transactions Reporting Act 2004 & Regulations 2007
- Quarantine Act CAP 112, Quarantine (Amendments) Regulations 2010
- Food Safety Act & Regulations 2012.
- Immigration Act 2003.

If circumstances and/or the content of this document have changed between submitting this document and your actual arrival, you must inform the boarding Agencies immediately.

IMaster/Owner of the craft being the person in charge declare that:

1. All particulars stated in this Advance Notification/Inward Report are true and correct.
2. This yacht will not be hired or otherwise reimbursed for carrying goods or passengers while in Fiji waters without express permission of the Fiji Government.
3. I have in my possession funds totaling Fiji $. (Note: Item # 6 of Page 9 - Border Currency Report to be completed)
4. I am financially liable for all crew members who arrived into Fiji on this vessel until they depart from Fiji by whatever means. Furthermore, I will notify Fiji Immigration of any crew changes prior to the departure of this vessel.
5. While in Fiji territorial waters I will ensure that all persons on this craft will comply with all provisions of the above listed Acts and Regulations including the Fisheries Act [1942] and the Endangered and Protected Species Act [2002].
